regret to hear that she has had to be taken

Mrs. B. Shepherd, who has been seriously ill with inflammatory rheumatism, is, we are happy to state, improving, and we trust will soon be in good health again. Her son, Dr.

A. J. Shepherd, is attending.

Our fellow-townsmen and old friend, B.

weeks past with inflammatory rheumatism,

nett, Esq. He died in Patterson, Wis., on count, on the 9th inst., from an attack of apoplexy.

He was a man of sterling integrity, and it will be long ere the memory of his kindly, genial manner will have ceased to remain with all who knew him.

tson's. He keeps the best at the lowest rates —and don't you forget it!

Another iron mine, some five miles south,

or southeast, of Ironton, is now being worked,

with favorable indications. It is said that one blast last Saturday displaced over $500 worth of excellent ore, and that the general outlook is so good that the gentlemen operating the mine are seriously considering the proposition to run a branch railroad to it.

VICK'S FLOWAL GUIDE.—This work is before us, and those who send 10 cents to James Vick,

Rochester, N. Y., for it will be disappointed.

Instead of getting a cheap thing, as the price would seem to indicate, they will receive a very handsome work of 113 pages, and perhaps 500 illustrations—not cheap, but elegant illustrations, on the very best of colored paper,

and as a set off to the whole, a beautiful colored plate that is worth twice the price of the book.

Some three months since, a couple of young men from Switzerland came here and bought

SPECIAL NOTICE.—The withdrawal from the firm of Whitworth, Clark & Co., of Jas. W. Whitworth—who goes to Arcadia to engage in business on his own hook, in the building formerly occupied by Farris & Beuchman—necessitates a new deal all around, and we are requested to notify everybody to come forward and settle up as soon as possible. That such a course is absolutely required to fix up the books properly, needs no demonstration from us, and we are satisfied this reminder will not be passed unheeded by the many patrons of that popular firm.

A SURPRISE PARTY SURPRISED.—On last Saturday evening the young folks of Graniteville concluded to have a surprise party at Mr. D. O'Brien's; so, getting the young ladies and music, they started and arrived in due time at the house. They were invited to enter and enjoy themselves, which invitation they were not slow in accepting. Everything passed off as merry as a marriage bell until twelve o'clock, when Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien, assisted by their accomplished daughters, surprised the visitors with an invitation to a very nice lunch consisting of hot coffee with plenty of the ordinary good things, addended with pound cake and pies. The visitors at length bid their hostess "good-night", and started for their respective homes, when, just as one couple had struck the slippery ice, they felt very tired and concluded to sit down, which they did, without invitation. The only objection they made to their seat was it was rather cool. Mr. Wm. O'Brien, who had stepped out into the yard to bid the guests "good-night", followed suit, and took a seat for company's sake. They may be sitting there yet, for all our correspondent can say, as he left immediately to avoid a similar fate. XXX.

MARRIED.—At the residence of the bride's parents, in Bellevue, Mo., January 15, 1881, by Rev. A. W. Miller, Mr. SAMUEL P. HARRIS and Miss SADIE A. WIATT.

The bridal party entered the parlor shortly after 7 o'clock. The bride was attended by the following young lady friends: Misses Mary Green, Lillie Soule, and Mrs. Eugene M. Logan. The bridegroom was supported by the following young gentlemen: Messrs. J. A. Rejburn, John H. Wiatt and Eugene M. Logan.

At the close of the ceremony we were conducted into the dining room, where we did ample justice to an elegant supper. After spending a few hours in pleasant conversation, and wishing the bride and groom happiness, prosperity and long life, the guests departed to their respective homes. The following lady and gentlemen friends were present at the marriage: Mr. S. A. Rejburn, Miss Arabella Imboden, John D. Stephens and wife, Frank Townsend and family, Messrs. W. J. Russell, Thomas Berryman, J. R. Stephens, J. Russell, Dr. W. W. Grissom, Riley Cowan, Jas. A. Rejburn and many others.

May sweet content be always found Attending through their path; May health and wealth and joy abound Where'er their lot be cast. L.

Immortal Hepsidam.

Ed. Register:

What a world of disbelievers this is! We have often heard of persons who doubted our worthy ancestor's account of his travels; and now our veracity is attacked! But we will explain. 'Twas not the late supper, nor the "blue-eyed girl" that blunted our perceptions, but the "One of the Spectators" will admit they were not, and imagine our nasal organ straddled with "strong pebble-glass" "speces." Our measurement of the church-house was not in 12 inch feet but 18 inch feet, such as adorn the nether extremities of some of Hepsidam's citizens. We admit we were a little enigmatical, but it is not always best to be plain in such matters.

As regards the number of persons present we will say we forgot to count ourself in; hence, (perhaps) the mistake.

We would not offer this explanation, were it not simply justice to the "blue-eyed girl," whoever she may be, and Yours Truly.

Although our account of our trip to Hepsidam, as is our explanation, was only an exaggeration, (in most respects) we must assert our rights.

Pilot Knob Items.

PILOT KNOB, Mo., Jan. 25th, 1881.

The big strike, which you have probably heard of, is over, and everything is quiet again. Some forty or fifty men quit the place. It was no trouble to get plenty of men to fill their places as they came in from every direction.

When I heard of the trouble I struck out to see Mr. Crane, thinking that I might get a boxing job. After making my business known, the old gentleman eyed me very closely, and was pulling down at the rate of forty miles per hour on a big chew of tobacco. He very kindly informed me that from my appearance he thought I would make a good summer hand, and to call again in the spring; thanking him for his kindness, I walked back to the hotel.

Messrs. Joe Retonia and L. J. Givancani of your city were in town a few days ago and made it very pleasant for the boys.

The young people had another very pleasant party at Mrs. Schmidner's hotel a few evenings ago, and all appeared to enjoy themselves finely.

Messrs. Wm. Trauerlicht and Mike Setts of Middlebrook called to see us a few days ago. If you want a new suit of clothes give Bill a call; his work is first-class.

Mrs. Catherine Tierney, mother of our railroad agent, died last week, after an illness of about ten days.

Pay-day has come and gone once more; we are all flush, except your humble servant, who on account of the cold snap, did not get in much time, besides having a scolding wife and seven small children to look after.

The Doctor says that the Hamburger cheese is all a joke and that he will get even with that correspondent yet.

Items are very scarce this week. I have been looking out all morning to see Ed. Turner, Jas. Welch, or Wm. Hyde to get a few chips, but they were not out.

Mr. Wm. Steffins is going up to the City today to get a new supply of drugs and chemicals, also a little wine for medical use.

This has been a bad winter on our numerous saloon keepers, their whiskey having been frozen all winter, excepting one case, and that upon examination by our county inspector was found to be half goose grease.

Our Sunday School is progressing very well under the management of Mr. Dilz, but the cold weather prevents many from getting out. We thank you and all the little devils a Happy New Year, and as Rip Van Winkle said, long life and prosperity, will call again.

Good-morning. W.

Ironton, Mo., Jan. 6.

Mrs. S. Lopez.

Many persons are bitterly opposed to "patent medicines," and will rarely use them at all. There is no doubt that many are worthless, yet a remedy that has stood the test for years, like Dr. Sherman's Prickly Ash Bitters, and its sale and popularity increasing every day, must have merit or it would have disappeared long since.

ATTENTION FARMERS!

The Arcadia House will pay, CASH, 30 cents per dozen for eggs, and 15 to 18 cents for cooking butter, delivered there. A. ROBERSON.

A brave boy who kept twenty Indians at bay died of his wounds at Denver, Col., a few days ago. It never happens that way in a time novel of Indian warfare. The brave boy in the time novel would have kept twenty Indians at bay until there was not an Indian left to bay at him, and then he would have rescued and married a beautiful white captive, with long hair kissed by the sunlight, red lips, eyes of diamonds, a marble brow, and a good-natured father worth $100,000. There is too much reality in the real.

Oysters sold by the can or dish, at Oesterle's Restaurant, stewed, or fried, or raw.

If you want Fresh oysters of all brands, at the lowest rates, call at Hotson's. Also, a new lot of Oranges just received.

Sheriff's Sale Under Deed of Trust.

WHEREAS Mary A. Miller and John A. Miller, her husband, by their certain deed of trust, dated the 14th day of February, 1878, and recorded in Book "17" on page 310 of the records of the recorder's office of Iron county, Missouri, conveyed to James M. Logan, in trust, the following described real estate, situated in Iron county, Missouri, to wit:

Lots one (1), two (2), three (3) and four (4), in Block sixteen (16), in the City of Ironton, as they are represented on the recorded plat of the City of Ironton;

Which said conveyance was made in trust to secure the payment of a certain promissory note therein described; and, whereas, said note has long since become due and default has been made in the payment thereof; and, whereas, the said James M. Logan refuses to serve as such trustee; and, whereas, by the provisions of said deed, it is provided that in such case the then acting sheriff of Iron county shall act as such trustee;

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given, that, at the request of the holder of said note, and by virtue and authority in me vested by said deed of trust, I will, on Saturday, February 26th, 1881, at the east front door of the courthouse, in the city of Ironton, in the county of Iron, State of Missouri, between the hours of nine o'clock in the forenoon and five o'clock in the afternoon of that day, sell, at public vendue, the above described real estate, to the highest bidder, for cash, to satisfy said note and the cost of executing this trust.

W. A. FLETCHER,
Sheriff and Trustee.
